Animal Welfare Act | rspca.org.uk

Animal Welfare Act Prior to the Animal Welfare Act, animal welfare law was largely reactive and action could only be taken once an animal had suffered unnecessarily. The 2006 Act has introduced an important and new concept for pet owners and those responsible for domestic animals, e.g. breeders, those who have working animals or farm animals in England and Wales.

The UK was the first country in the world to enact animal protection laws. The first legislation protecting animals was passed in 1822, through the Act to Prevent the Cruel and Improper Treatment of Cattle, which made it a crime to cruelly treat several species of domesticated animals, including cattle, oxen, horses or sheep.
