I was excited to read THE ALCHEMY OF FOREVER, but I didn't expect to enjoy it nearly as much as I actually did. Sure, the plot sounded intriguing, but reincarnation novels can be a hit or miss. So I went in with low expectations, only to find myself completely engulfed in Seraphina's story. The story is about Seraphina Ames.

Being an Incarnate means immortality, thanks to alchemy, but tricking death has a cost: they have to take an innocent live in order to keep living. Seraphina is sick of the monster she's and of being strangled by Cyrus possessive love. She's willing to let it go forever, not sure what is in the other end for a being like her.

The Alchemy Of Forever weaves a beautiful tale of love and magic. Readers will enjoy the new take of alchemy and it's magical forms. If anything, The Alchemy Of Forever is a thrilling enchantment story that can reign anyone in.

Just when I thought I've read every type of YA book imaginable, The Alchemy of Forever takes me by surprise. Seraphina is a 600-year-old Incarnation, an immortal who takes other people's bodies to continue living. But after six centuries, Sera is tired of living and killing other people just to extend her own life.
